

Blind Truth

Gengahr

To lie awake with you, it's bad news
I only stay the night, a distance I choose Desire, my own demise that falls through Destroy the voice inside that draws you nearer
I fair as well as most if that's true
When I fall tonight catch me - won't you?

The fucked up shit that I do is just to make you notice
I'm careful now where we go but maybe you should know
The fucked up things that I say are supposed to make you want m e
I never mean to hurt you, it's just the way it goes

It's only fair to say what I do
You've started thinking now - would he ever?
You turn away, get up but don't move
Can't help the strange inside it draws us together
Each day we close our eyes to blind truth
It's clear you're not afraid, but that won't matter

The fucked up shit that I do is just to make you notice
I'm careful now where we go but maybe you should know
The fucked up things that I say are supposed to make you want m
e
I never mean to hurt you, it's just the way it goes

The accident
Will plague your mind
You can't be helped
If you don't know by now

The fucked up shit that I do is just to make you notice
I'm careful now where we go but maybe you should know
The fucked up things that I say are supposed to make you want m
e
I never mean to hurt you, it's just the way it goes
