

Everything & More

Gengahr

All time low
And I can't seem to find my way out
Misplaced so soon
An evening in your past

For the chance to say what I'd do
All the waking hours
I regret the way I left things now
And that's what really hurts

Burned right through
A pity that it's taken so long
Each passing sun
Brighter now it's gone
Oh I've held it too
Bleeding in my arms

For a chance to say what I'd do
All the waking hours
I regret the way I left things now
And that's what really hurts

Hold me closer now
I'm feeling like you've got to know
Now it's everything and more
Hold me closer now
I'm feeling like you've got to know
Now it's everything and more

Fading night, keep aching back
Earth bound, a tear in the unknown
Forcing time
Broad daylight
Honey I wanna go to war with you
I'm sorry that I couldn't let it go now too

For the chance to say what I'd do
All the waking hours
I regret the way I left things now
And now it's everything and more

Honey I wanna go to war with you
I'm sorry that I couldn't let it show now too
And now it's everything and more

Hold me closer now
I'm feeling like you've got to know
Now it's everything and more
Hold me closer now
I'm feeling like you've got to know
Now it's everything and more
