

I'll Be Waiting

Gengahr

Tears inside, ready to climb
I would look round but now there's nothing to find
Both hands tied, ready to learn
If actions talk I guess you've already heard

Still in love with you
That's alright, I'll be waiting
Nothing I won't do
To hell and back, I keep singing

Whatever it takes, already blind
The harder we break the better we'll see in time
Hold me with nurtured pride, ready to lie
Two steps back and now I'm wondering why

Still in love with you
That's alright, I'll be waiting
Nothing I won't do
To hell and back, I keep singing

Trouble never let go
Now it seems so close to my eyes
When they go light, I pick it up
Different now you're missing
Crystal lines so clear in my mind
Where will I find, I wonder?

Still in love with you
That's alright, I'll be waiting
Nothing I won't do
To hell and back, I keep singing

I know I know, It wasn't that
The next thing I touch, will fall apart
Just know that I could, sit patiently
Carried too far, to start again

Still in love with you
Nothing I won't do
Still in love with you
That's alright, I'll be waiting
