

Loki

Gengahr

Remember when we came in
Sure, you'd never let me go
Days spent on the couch
Shouting up to you
Sure that I would break down
My love, a death, run and hide
Hurt him like I'll never know
Burn him close to you

We were some falling
Heaven, don't fear me now
Tidied away, or

The people never coming back
If shame was something I could feel
Only high mania
Deadly after you
And look who's got you running 'round
Love to feel you've been abused
The end is all I think about
For something I can do

We were some falling
Heaven, don't fear me now
Tidied away, or

Know that I'm calling
Only to bring you down
Shadows await now
Watch as they fill the ground

Know that I'm calling
Only to bring you down
Shadows await now
Watch as they fill the ground

Know that I'm calling
Only to bring you down
Shadows await now
Watch as they fill the ground
