It's sinking in, that you'll be fine
Not worth waking up, It hurt when I tried
Gave so much, I'm not sure why
I can't help thinking of, the ways that you lied

I like it when we're high but you wouldn't know
Every time we're up there you keep letting go
I like it when we're high but you wouldn't know
Every time we're up there you keep letting go

Don't look back, It won't feel right
When you're done making up, I know how you'll cry
Hurt so much, fading now
So don't go bringing up the feeling we had

I like it when we're high but you wouldn't know
Every time we're up there you keep letting go
I like it when we're high but you wouldn't know
Every time we're up there you keep letting go

I like it when we're high [x12]
