

Thank God for this girl
Though she be satanic
Praying that I had planned this
Never had I been shunned
This girl, she stuck it to me
This girl, she had me lie about myself
Cause she's just good enough
Never had I been shunned
Well, I don't mean to try this
But I hope this will give me leverage
If this song makes the mood
Maybe you'll know just how I planned this

Hey there, babe, I love you
I had just lost my way, you need it
Thank God for this girl
Though she be satanic
