Good In Me

Gentle Bones

You blow my mind, it's crazy
I don't know why, you want me?
How did we start with a hello, and now we watch our love grow
'Cause everytime

I'm thinking if you wonder what I mean
When I try my best to help you see
You're the girl I never asked for
But the perfect girl for me

Oh she helps me go to sleep
And she loves the person I could be
In a world that sees all my flaws- she
Only sees the good in me
Oh you got it, you're the perfect girl for me
Said ooh your love is, bringing out the good in me

Never knew a girl who cared about my history
Just to find the ways to love me right
So how did we start with a hello
And now we get to grow old
'Cause everytime

I'm thinking if you wonder what I mean
When I try my best to help you see
You're the girl I never asked for
But the perfect girl for me

Oh she helps me go to sleep
And she loves the person I could be
In a world that sees all my flaws- she
Only sees the good in me
Oh you got it, you're the perfect girl for me
Said ooh your love is, bringing out the good in me

It gets hard for me to speak
Or put in words all that you mean to me
You're the girl I never asked for
But the only girl I need

No more insecurities
I'll be the man that she thinks I could be
In a world that sees all my flaws she
Only sees the good in me

Oh you got it, you're the perfect girl for me
Said ooh your love is, bringing out the good in me
Oh you got it, you're the perfect girl for me
Said ooh your love is, bringing out the good in me

How did we start with a hello
How did we start with a hello
