

Lost

Gentle Bones

I can't seem to find my way back home
The same path took me somewhere I didn't know
Is this the part where I give up and die
For they either had me rid of or denied

For when I shout I start to mumble all these words stuck in my mouth
I see help arrive but I can't do a thing
And with the heat I start to tremble and the air's lost in my lungs
While I can't seem to break a single sweat

Is this where I wanna be, is this where I wanna sleep
Being lost in isolation and defeat
Do I have no where else to go, or is there some where I don't know of
Would you take me away from this please?

Faces changing, everything's not right
How could I have let this chance slip by
Well It's that day that comes again, and we see nothing in the rain
And my head's in the clouds the whole night

But Is this where I wanna be, is this where I wanna sleep
Being lost in isolation and defeat
Do I have no where else to go, or is there somewhere I don't know of
Would you take me away from this please?

This ain't the end my mother said
For life is too short as it is
But I bear in mind that we are all that we need to be, to be complete

Is this where I wanna be, is this where I wanna sleep
Being lost in isolation and defeat
Do I have no where else to go, or is there some where I don't know of
Would you take me away from this please
Yeah
