

Pretty Boy

Gentle Bones

I'm a pretty boy, but I talk too loud
Feeling too much 'til I'm done right now
'Cause every time I speak my mind, you tell me
"Boy, don't run your mouth"
I'm a pretty boy, but I talk too loud
Feeling so much 'til I'm done right now
'Cause every time I speak my mind, they tell me
I'm a pretty boy that talks too loud

Maybe they say what I need
Not always happy and I can be
What you see and need today (need today, need today)
It's how these things go
That is, be, sometimes I don't make sense
But I gotta smile when I'm depressed, bein' my best

I'm a pretty boy, but I talk too loud
Feeling too much 'til I'm done right now
'Cause every time I speak my mind, they tell me
"Boy, don't run your mouth"
I'm a pretty boy, but I talk too loud
Feeling too much 'til I'm done right now
'Cause every time I speak my mind, they tell me
I'm a pretty boy that talks too loud

Take me for who I am
I'm sick of trying to fit in where I'm supposed to, yeah
Sorry, lately I've been in my A
Go easy on me, need a holiday
Still I keep it cool and I'm impressed, bein' my best

I'm a pretty boy, but I talk too loud
Feeling too much 'til I'm done right now
'Cause every time I speak my mind, they tell me
"Pretty boy, don't, pretty boy, don't"
I'm a pretty boy, but I talk too loud
Feeling so much 'til I'm done right now
'Cause every time I speak my mind
"Boy, don't talk too loud"

If you're listening, wherever you are
Hope you know you're not alone, hear me out, 'cause I'm lettin' you k now

I am who I am, don't always have to make sense
And this is who I am, that's how it goes
I am who I am, don't always have to make sense
And this is who I am, that's how it goes, yeah
