

thank you

Gentle Bones

If I am honest, you are the reason
I almost gave it up
Telling myself that I wouldn't make it
I will never be enough
But I now know where I belong
And it's without you
Oh it's without you

Yea I know we hurt
The world's so cruel
But why do you have to
Be a part of it too
Yea love and pain is a tricky game
Let me show you as I...

Thank you for the ways you thought less of me
Now I'm the best I can be
So thank You for all the hell that you put me through Stronger now because of you
So I thank you

Now I'm on my way
Swore I'd make it
Standing firm always
Best believe it
I'm quite done with killing my soul when it's not meant to be Hoping you'll be fine on your own

Yea I know it hurts
It hurts so good
But why do you have to Take it out on me too
Yea love and pain is a tricky game
Let me show you as I...

Love you for the things you won't see in me
Gave me a reason to leave
So love you for all the hell that you put me through Heaven I found without you
So I thank you

I thank you, I thank you
I thank you, bye

I thank you for the ways you thought less of me (I thank you)
Now I'm the best I can be
So thank you for all the hell that you put me through (I thank you)
Stronger now because of you
