

Those Days

Gentle Bones

I can't lie, I've had those days where I kinda wanna give up
Finding ways just to escape when I'm feeling like it's too much
On repeat inside my head, worst case scenarios won't shut up
I can't lie, I've had those days

Ah-ha-ooh
But I'm slowly learning
Ah-ha-ooh
Nobody's perfect

Maybe if the good things work then the bad things won't matter
Even when I'm sad I know only happy comes after oh
Can't have highs without lows
Won't always drive down easy roads
So now I know
When the good things work then the bad things don't matter
The bad things don't matter

I've had my heart break in half
Couldn't find a way to fix it
I spent so long looking back
Like I could've made it different
But I know if I changed the past
There'd still be parts of me missing
Cause that's the reason I'm who I am

Ah-ha-ooh
And I'm slowly learning
Ah-ha-ooh
Nobody's perfect

Maybe if the good things work then the bad things won't matter
Even when I'm sad I know only happy comes after oh
Can't have highs without lows
Won't always drive down easy roads
So now I know
When the good things work then the bad things don't matter
The bad things don't matter

I can't lie, I've had those days
Finding ways just to escape when I kinda wanna give up
I've had my heart break in half
I can't lie, I've had those days

Maybe if the good things work then the bad things won't matter
Even when I'm sad I know only happy comes after
Can't have highs without lows
Won't always drive down easy roads
So now I know
When the good things work then the bad things don't matter
The bad things don't matter
The bad things don't matter
Maybe the good things work then the bad things don't matter
Good things work sometimes
Even when I'm sad I know only happy comes after
The bad things don't matter
The bad things don't matter
