Why Do We?

Gentle Bones

Why do we lie to each other?
Why do we fight with the one we can't lose?
Where art thou heavenly father, where are our minds in this wor ld that we knew?
Wide awake but sleeping
Counting sheep oh in the dark
Blaming these same old mistakes
With the warm, I am freezing
Is it love when we're apart?
Would you please wish me well?

Cause I don't know to tell if you love me
I don't know to ask if it's just me
Or maybe it's the way you're touching me that I don't know to a sk
Why do we hurt like this?

Why do we fight with each other?
Why do I lie when I just wanna tell you the truth?
Why do you think I'm the fool
Every time I choose to be loving you
Lie awake but dreaming
You're so close but yet so far
When I'm with you on this bed
What is wrong I wonder
Are we hiding in the past?
Thought that I know you well

Cause I don't know to tell if you love me
I don't know to ask if it's just me
Or maybe it's the way you're touching me that I don't know to a sk
Why do we hurt like this?
Cause I don't know to tell if you love me
Oh my God to hell with ce la vie
Us together oh somehow I feel complete
But I don't know to ask
Why do we hurt like this?

Why do we? Why do we? Why do we?
Why do we hurt like this?
Why do we? Why do we? Why do we?
Why do we hurt like this?
Why do we?
