We're only human
We're only human

Do you prefer holdin' back or say what you wanna say?
Do you prefer meditation or prefer to pray?
When there is a situation, do you run away?
Trouble self your mind
Would you rather be free or make yuh bed in a cage?
Do you judge a book and neva open page
Are you ready to cool it
Are you holdin' your rage
Trouble self your mind

Cause we're only human
With imperfections
Cause there is a time and a place for everything
We're only human, yeah

Are you gonna look back and say that you never live?
Expect to receive but then you don't wanna give
Your conscience and vacation your heart is a drift
Trouble self your mind
Are you really no' able and facin' this place?
Or are you givin' up a wan' move outta space?
I know you know what I'm sayin' I see di look on yuh face

Cause we're only human
With imperfections
Cause there is a time and a place for everything

So many barriers, so many gates and bars
Sometimes you feel like life is a runaway car
So many barriers, so many gates and bars

Do you prefer holdin back or say what you wanna say?
Do you prefer meditation or prefer to pray?
When there is a situation, do you run away?

Would you rather be free or make it bad in a cage?
Do you judge a book and neva open page
