

Things Will Be Greater

Gentleman

Yesterday, I took a walk down di lane
Me see so many people a cry
And everything a just remain di same
No matter how hard dem a try
After di effort di result is less than the money can buy
Some even send a letter to di government
And a no get no reply

Just hold on to later, things will be greater
Blessings a go fall like manner from the sky
I and I say later, go on, hold di faith, yah
All you got to do is keep your head up high
Hold on to later, things will be greater
Blessings a go fall like manner from the sky
I and I say later, go on, hold di faith, yah
All you got to do is keep your head up high

Know yourself when you reach di gate
Becah you might have to start again (Again)
Disappointed that you have to wait
But don't take it to heart, me friend, no-no-no
We nuh go make it out if we dialing the same code (Hah-ah)
Remember how we trod this ya rocky road

Just hold on to later, things will be greater
Blessings a go fall like manner from the sky
I and I say later, go on, hold di faith, yah
All you got to do is keep your head up high
Hold on to later, things will be greater
Blessings a go fall like manner from the sky
I and I say later, go on, hold di faith, yah
All you got to do is keep your head up high

Some people lookin' for a leader
What dem hand down to dem with social media
Everyone free to do as dem like
But don't let the system wrong you right
Now a subject of Wikipedia
Algorithm one a the greatest mind leader
Elephant a trample the mice
Think twice

Just hold on to later, things will be greater
Blessings a go fall like manner from the sky
I and I say later, go on, hold di faith, yah
All you got to do is keep your head up high
Hold on to later, things will be greater
Blessings a go fall like manner from the sky
I and I say later, go on, hold di faith, yah
All you got to do is keep your head up high

Later, things'll be greater
Blessings a go fall like manner, like, I and I
Say later, go on, hold di faith, yah
All you got to do is keep your head up high
Later, things'll be greater
Blessings a go fall like manner, like, I and I

Say later, go on, hold di faith, yah
All you got to do is keep your head up

Just hold on to later, things will be greater
Blessings a go fall like manner from the sky
I and I say later, go on, hold di faith, yah
All you got to do is keep your head up high
Hold on to later, things will be greater
Blessings a go fall like manner from the sky
I and I say later, go on, hold di faith, yah
All you got to do is keep your head up high
