

Belong

Geoff Moore

This life I'm living
I'm so quick to call it mine
These days these hours
The moments we call time
But ever beat of my heart
And every breath I take
Are ones that You have given
Reminding me that always

For You I was created
To sing salvation's song
For You have bought me
With Your blood
To You I do belong

Only a Savior
Would pay so great a price
How deep the love must be
That would make such a sacrifice

How could I ever thank You

What could I ever say
Except that I will follow You
And with my life I will proclaim

For You I was created
To sing salvation's song
For You have bought me
With Your blood
To You I do belong

And every beat of my heart
And every breath I take
Are ones that You have given
Reminding me that always

For You I was created
To sing salvation's song
For You have bought me
With Your blood
To You I do belong
