Come As You Are

Geoff Moore

There Is A Thread Running Between The First And The Last Breath That We Breathe

And In This Strand Of Flesh And Bone Reside The Hopes And Dreams We Call Our Own

And There's A Hand That Sews The Threads Together Around One Strand Of Saving Scarlet Thread

Come As You Are Weary, Worn, And Tattered Come And Take Your Place Among The Threads

There Is A Thread Sometimes Unseen Moving Through Life's Tapestry And When This Strand Enters A Soul It's Woven To The One That Makes Us Whole

And There's A Hand That Sews The Threads Together Around One Strand Of Saving Scarlet Thread

Come As You Are Weary, Worn And Tattered Come And Take Your Place Among The Threads Come And Take Your Place Among The Threads
