

Impossible

Geoff Moore

Take me to a cause that seems already lost
Where the outlook is grim
Because the odds are too great
And the chances so slim

When the wall seems unclimbable
The sea is uncrossable
The mountains unmovable
Our God does the impossible

Come taste and find
The water's turned to wine
And see the truth through the eyes
The eyes that once were blind

When the wall seems unclimbable
And the sea is uncrossable
The mountains unmovable
Our God does the impossible

Walk on the sea
In the wonder and mystery
No mind has conceived
No eye has seen and no ear has ever heard

No eye has seen and no ear has ever heard
No eye has seen and no ear has ever heard
No eye has seen and no ear has ever heard

When the wall is unclimbable
(No eye has seen and no ear has ever heard)
The sea is uncrossable
(No eye has seen and no ear has ever heard)

The mountains unmovable
(No eye has seen and no ear has ever heard)
Our God does the impossible
(No eye has seen and no ear has ever heard)
Our God does the impossible

No eye has seen and no ear has ever heard
No eye has seen and no ear has ever heard
