

Overwhelming Love

Geoff Moore

Forgive me for the way
That I have tried to make
You smaller
That's just how a weak man
Try's to understand something stronger
Something stronger

If we could see, just one glimpse
Of who you are
Then we would be undone
By your astounding
By your amazing
By your relentless
Overwhelming love

Thank you for the way
That you have loved me
With such patience
That we can come into your presence
God, is so amazing

Cause if we could see, just one glimpse
Of who you are
Then we would be undone

By your astounding
By your amazing
By your relentless
Overwhelming love

And we are humbled
Oh we are leveled
Let us be ruined by
Your overwhelming love

Love that still pursues us
Love that never refuses
Love that always proves itself true
I am overwhelmed

By your astounding
By your amazing
By your relentless
Overwhelming love

And we are humbled
Oh we are leveled
Let us be ruined by
Your overwhelming love

Let us be ruined by
Your overwhelming love
If we could see, just one glimpse
Of who you are then we would be undone
