

Sweetpie

Geoffroy

Sweetheart

My sweet words have faded over time
Slowly but surely, in the back of my mind
My heart has lost all the love that it kept
So I'll save my breath, It's all I have left
Yet you are still to me, everything I need
And I'll forever keep the best memories

Sweetpie

Our sweet ties will slowly let go
We'll split our shares, learn to live alone
If all the lips I've kissed could satisfy my soul
If trouble wouldn't find me so easily down the hole
And if anybody's missed, we'll learn to ignore
Yet you are still to me, everything I need
And I'll forever keep the best memories
Yes I'll forever hold
The best memories
