Wanderer

Geoffroy

I am a wanderer
I figured out a writer to write my story like
And call it what I want

Gotta leave on my own, gotta feel it now
Been stuck in a circle, been tryin' to run
Gotta leave on my own, gotta feel it now
Been stuck in a circle and tryin' to write

Been hoping for a reason
Been begging for a changer
The rhythm of foundations
Is calling out my name

So I peeled off my skin
Learn to breathe again
Not needin' no advice
To start it off again

Gonna leave on my own, gonna feel it now
Right out of my circle, wanna live and run
Gonna leave on my own, gonna feel it now
Right out of my circle, wanna live and run

Been hoping for a reason
Been begging for a changer
The rhythm of foundations
Is calling out my name

Been hoping for a reason
Been begging for a changer
The rhythm of foundations
Is calling out my name
