

Is It Ever Enough

Geographer

If I took you off this island
If I led you to the sea
Would you believe in love?
Is it ever enough?

I wonder if I had you before me
If I had you right here
Would the words come out?
Please don't fail me now
If I took your hand and just started to run
If I had no plans at all
Would you believe in love?
Is it ever enough?

I know you gotta learn to crawl
If you ever wanna run
Oh but all I'm doing is falling
Tell me baby
Tell me is it ever enough?

Ohh Ohh
Ohh Ohh
Oh is it ever enough?
Ohh Ohh
Ohh Ohh

And if I showed you all my sorrow
All my weakness and my fear
Would it be enough?
Or is it better to trust?

I know you felt the same
The second that I saw you
Like a moth to the flame
When the fates align
You just can't let 'em down

I know you gotta learn to crawl
If you ever wanna run
Oh but all I'm doing is falling
Tell me baby
Tell me is it ever enough?

Ohh Ohh
Ohh Ohh
Oh is it ever enough?
Ohh Ohh
Ohh Ohh

What do I do now that you're here
It was easier somehow
When you were in my imagination
But baby you're as real as they come
Is it ever enough?
Is it ever enough?

Is it enough for love?

To see the whole whole sky?
Is it enough for time?
To live out my life?
Is it enough of love?
To fill up my cup?
Is there enough of us?
Because we're drinking from the
Drinking from the
Drinking from the same cup

Oh is it ever enough?
Oh we're drinking from the
Drinking from the
Drinking from the same cup

Oh is it ever enough?
