

So Low

Geographer

Everything I have is broken
And all the promises are hollow
Everything I make gets stolen
And every good day's just borrowed
I can't get much higher
But still I feel so low

I'm high as a kite, babe
So why do I feel so low?

I can see my house from here
But I'm looking for my home
I'm dancing on the ceiling, but it feels just like the floor
I'm high as a kite, babe

So why do I feel so low?
Why do I feel so low?

Everything I see is golden
And everyone but me can hold it
It's three and the bars are closing
But my heart is still wide open
I can't get much higher
But still I feel so low

I'm high as a kite, babe
So why do I feel so low?
I can feel my heart's
I can see my house from here
But I'm looking for my home
I'm dancing on the ceiling, but it feels just like the floor
I'm high as a kite, babe
So why do I feel so low?

Why do I feel so low?
Why do I feel so low?

(Low)

I used to believe
How did I get so

(Low)

I used to be dreaming
How did I get so

(Low)

I got what I needed
Why do I feel so

(Low)

I'm down on my knees
How did I get so

Low, low, low

Low, low, low

Low, low

How did I get so low?

Why do I feel so low?

Why do I feel so low?
