

Alive

George Alice

There's a pain in my chest that I can't describe
It takes me down
And leaves me there
When I talk to the night, I can feel it stare
It creeps inside
And meets me there

At least I'm alive
At least I'm alive
Believe me, believe me
Believe me, believe me

(Ooh-woah-ooh) coming back again
(Ooh-woah-ooh, ooh) coming back again
Wanna live tonight

There's a pain in my chest that I can't describe
I close my eyes
The day's the same
There's a thorn in my side when I hear my name
It makes me hide
I feel the shame

At least I'm alive
At least I'm alive
Believe me, believe me
Believe me, believe me

(Ooh-woah-ooh) coming back again
(Ooh-woah-ooh, ooh) coming back again
Wanna live tonight
(Ooh-woah-ooh, ooh) coming back again
Wanna live tonight (ooh-woah-ooh)

At least I'm alive
At least I'm alive
Believe me, believe me
Believe me, believe me

(Ooh-woah-ooh) coming back again
(Ooh-woah-ooh, ooh) coming back again
Wanna live tonight (ooh-woah-ooh)

At least I'm alive
At least I'm alive
Believe me, believe me
Believe me, believe me

At least I'm alive
At least I'm alive
Believe me, believe me
Believe me, believe me
