

I didn't mean to leave you lonely
Should I go back to the old me?
I didn't wanna say too much
Now it's like you don't even know me
I'm praying to the most high
And he says that it will be fine
Can we just go back in time?
To when it wasn't all goodbyes

Ooh ooh
I know you feel it too
Ooh ooh
So tell me if it's true
Oh oh oh oh oh

1-2-3
Counting down the seconds like they're all we need
We're not the people that we used to be
So maybe it's worth a try
To let you be with another guy
3-6-5
I gave you it all until you changed your mind
I thought all we needed was a little time
But now I know that I lied
'Cause you're still my kryptonite
'Cause you're still my kryptonite

I called you 7 seven times but you didn't text back
How did we get to that?
And after all these months of pulling you closer
I'm still so scared of closure
So you can keep your clothes on Cause I'm not coming over
Learning to cry without your shoulder
But I need you most when I'm not sober

Ooh ooh
I know you feel it too
Ooh ooh
So tell me if it's true
Oh oh oh oh oh

1-2-3
Counting down the seconds like they're all we need
We're not the people that we used to be
So maybe it's worth a try
To let you be with another guy
3-6-5
I gave you it all until you changed your mind
I thought all we needed was a little time
But now I know that I lied
'Cause you're still my kryptonite
'Cause you're still my kryptonite
