

Oh Magdalena

George Baker Selection

Alright everybody, alright everybody
Here we go
We like to sing for you
The one and only Magdalena!

Some people they like the singer
Some people just like the song
Some people say that it's black whenever it's white
Me, I'm already happy
To sing for the rich and the poor
So don't tell me stories, a fortune glory
I heard it a long time before.

Alright, Gerard
Play the accordeon right now
Come on, let me hear it!

Some people duck from the leftside
I know what's up from the right
Some they like swimming, other ones like to see football
Me, I'm already happy
To sing for the rich and the poor
So don't tell me stories, a fortune glory
I heard it a long time before.

Alright, here we go!

Oh, Magdalena, bring me some ice for my head
The world is a mess, but nobody's trying to clean it (Ohoho)
Oh, Magdalena, we gotta go into bed
Turn out the lights and make love
While the moon shining up above.

Oh yeah!

I like to sleep on a Sunday morning
Walking in the midday sun
Having a party with good friends spotting the life
Don't want no politicians
To tell me what's right and what's wrong
It's all the same story, it's for their own glory
I heard it a long time before.

Oh!

Oh, Magdalena, bring me some ice for my head
The world is a mess, but nobody's trying to clean it (Ohoho)
Oh, Magdalena, we gotta go into bed
Turn out the lights and make love
While the moon shining up above.

Alright, Charlie, get on, get it on!

Ohoho
Oh, Magdalena, bring me some ice for my head
The world is a mess, but nobody's trying to clean it (Ohoho)
Oh, Magdalena, we gotta go into bed

Turn out the lights and make love
While the moon shining up above
Turn out the lights and make love
While the moon shining up above
Turn out the lights and make love
While the moon shining up above.

Ohoho, lalalala, lalala
Ohohoho, ohohoho
Ohohohohohohoho!
