

Papillon

George Baker Selection

Sail up in the sky
Sail in to the golden sun
Now your free at last
Now for you it just begun
When they close the door
When they left you down in pain
You didn't loose your faith
You knew you would be free again

So sail away, sweet papillon
And kiss the flowers all around you
You won't be captured anymore, sweet papillon
Reach out to the golden sky
Sail out on the wings of tides

So sail away, sweet papillon
And kiss the flowers all around you
You won't be captured anymore, sweet papillon
Reach out to the golden sky
Sail out on the wings of tides

Took away the smile
Took away the dreams of youth
Lock you in a sell
Told you this would be for you

Tell me, papillon
Did you find a way to run?
So I can do it too
Fly out in the morning sun

So sail away, sweet papillon
And kiss the flowers all around you
You won't be captured anymore, sweet papillon
Reach out to the golden sky
Sail out on the wings of tides

So sail away, sweet papillon
And kiss the flowers all around you
You won't be captured anymore, sweet papillon
Reach out to the golden sky
Sail out on the wings of tides

So sail away, sweet papillon
And kiss the flowers all around you
You won't be captured anymore, sweet papillon
Reach out to the golden sky
Sail out on the wings of tides
