

The Prisoner

George Baker Selection

One more sunrise
Prisoner begged me
One more time to see my wife
They say I'm a coward
Nobody's my friend
One more time to reach the end

When I see the green, green grass
Flowers and the trees
Looking back to my home town
No, there is too much for me to live

One more sunrise
I beg it on my knees
I must tell the people how I feel
They say I'm a coward
Nobody's my friend
One more time to reach the end

When I see the green, green grass
Flowers and the trees
Looking back to my home town
No, there is too much for me to live

One more sunrise
I beg it on my knees
I must tell the people how I feel
They say I'm a coward
Can't kill other men
One more time to reach the end
