

When We're Dancing

George Baker Selection

When We're Dancing
Lonely is the twilight time
Dreamin' about the happiness that once was mine
Where are you going, my love?
I know that it wasn't enough for you to live easily

I wonder did you hear me go?
Back to your tropical ofland, where the warm winds blow
You're still the one I adore
I wish I could hold you once more so close in my arms

And when we're dancing
Violins playing the warm melody
Under the stars the thousand guitars
For you and for me

And when we're dancing
Under the wind when I look in your eyes
I hear you say:
"Please, take me away into paradise"

After my fantasy it's taking me beyond the stars
It is all I can see that I have lost your love

But when we're dancing
I love the way when I look in your eyes
I hear you say:
"Please, take me away into paradise"

Lonely is the twilight hours
Lonely is the one who'll has to live on dreams once more
But this is all what I have
I wish I could say it again: "Do you wanna dance?"

And when we're dancing
Violins playing the warm melody
Under the stars the thousand guitars
For you and for me

And when we're dancing
Under the wind when I look in your eyes
I hear you say:
"Please, take me away into paradise"

After my fantasy it's taking me beyond the stars
It is all I can see that I have lost your love

But when we're dancing
I love the way when I look in your eyes
I hear you say:
"Please, take me away into sweet, sweet paradise"
