

Runaways

George Clanton

You sold me out this time
And I wonder why I let you cross that line
And leave me hanging out to dry

Don't try to walk away
Don't try to say its wrong
I know you miss me baby
And its been so long

You're my inspiration
To run to run
You're my fantasy
So let run
Let's run away

In someone else's maze, you found yourself
And a hundred different ways
To keep me on the shelf

I don't wish to settle down
I don't wish to lose a friend
You might have someone now
But I'll still be waiting in the end

You're my inspiration
To run to run
You're my fantasy
So let run
Let's run away

I don't have an explanation
I just want you next to me
