

Shouldn'ta Done That

George Clanton

It was about time, saw it coming in my mind, whoa-oh
Some things you can't take back, when they're so far off the track, whoa-oh

Horizon calling, there is no stalling me now
I can't forgive, that's how I want to live from here on out

You shouldn'ta done that, it's too late to turn back now
You didn't have to do it but you did
You shouldn'ta done that, it's too late to turn back now
You did, you did, you did

It seems a paltry price
I'd be happy to pay that twice, oh oh
If this is how it's gonna be
Then you can't forget about me, oh oh

Horizon calling, there is no stalling me now
I can't forget that's how I want to live from here on out

You shouldn'ta done that, it's too late to turn back now
You didn't have to do it but you did
You shouldn'ta done that, it's too late to turn back now
You did, you did, you did (you did, you did)
