

I Love You More

George Duke

Loving you, gives me something new I've never felt
Your eyes and your smile and your casual style are rock up the new

I thought that I was playing trying to keep on saying that I have you, baby Yes I do
I've tried to keep from filling all the things I'm felling but I love you, Oh girl
Yes I do, Oh baby

Girl I love you more that I dare to say But love cannot hide

No I hide
this feeling inside
no I tried to lie
to stop me alike Inside

I want you keep your loving but something keeps on telling me Wait awhile, she's not your style

I've tried to keep my distance you played with my resistance until I knew my love was true for you

Now I know it's true
I love you more
I do (than yesterday)
I love you more

I've thought about my future and I don't want to lose it No, I'm not fool
I'm playing it cool

Starting understand it I want to the best that I can for you help me to, Oh baby

Yes I love you more than a ray of sun
lot than a sun
yes and the moon
I love you more

I do
I love you more
and the moon

I love you more
