Hearts In My Dream

George Jones

I dreamed that all the hearts I've broken came to visit me And in my sleep they came to pay me for their misery They were all so torn and shattered, Oh such tales of woe It was I who caused them all and my conscience hurts me so Hearts in my dream Each one of them true Each one loved me so Each one I broke in two My younger days were wild and reckless Just love 'em and let 'em be Those days are gone although it took a dream to make me see Hearts in my dream Each one of them true Each one loved me so Each one I broke in two My younger days were wild and reckless Just love 'em and let 'em be Those days are gone although it took a dream to make me see
