

I'm Gonna Burn Your Playhouse Down

George Jones

I've got an achin' in my heart
Arson on my mind
I'm gonna burn your playhouse down

I've got a badly broken heart
Yes I've had it from the start
You're giving me the runaround

Now if you play with fire, it's sure to burn
I've known this all of my life
Go on, be on your way, I've had my say
Well, honey, I'm through with you for life

You'll find there's one in every yard
And I'm a getting mighty tired
I'm gonna burn your playhouse down

I've got an achin' in my heart
Arson on my mind
I'm gonna burn your playhouse down

I've got a badly broken heart
I've had it from the start
You're giving me the runaround

Now if you play with fire, it's sure to burn
I've heard this all of my life
Go on, be on your way, well honey I've had my say
'Cause I'm through with you for life

I've got an achin' in my heart
Arson on my mind
I'm gonna burn your playhouse down

Now don't pretend that this is the end
'Cause this time we're really through
While you were runnin' 'round, burning up the town
Well, I set my trap for you

I've got an achin' in my heart
Arson on my mind
I'm gonna burn your playhouse down
