

Never Enough / Too Much

George Maple

I fear I will always be too much (or never be enough)
I, I just want to be loved
I just want to love
Why am I so hard to love?
Am I not worth it to you?
What is it about you that makes me feel stronger
And yet so eternally free
Perhaps it is the, the great binary
All I want is for you to accept me
All I want is for you to accept me
Is that so hard?
