

Sweeter Than I

George Maple

Here we are alone again
I woke up so nervous, didn't know why
'Cause I need a moment, can I have a moment?
Guess I'm in the moment now

Climbing up the walls again
It's been a year, I said I didn't need this
But you looked good
So half drunk, half high, half coked up, here we are

What's it to you? (To you)
If I'm running in and out of some other man's mind?
What's it to you? (There's no need to lie)
Guess you never found a lover more sweeter than I
What's it to you? (Are you just jealous?)
As I make another mistake, now you're not mine
My, oh my, my, oh my
My, oh my, my, oh my

My, oh my, my, oh my
('Cause you look good)
My, oh my, my, oh my
But you look good
Telling you to let go

What's it to me? Shit's a movie
That's the old me, this the new me
Like a doobie 'cause we going up in smoke
With no Eminems, Doctors or Snoopies
I say this loosely, but I don't wanna lose you
The same way you don't wanna lose me
And all this talk of a new nigga? Who figured?
But it's really starting to confuse me
Let's rewind this a little bit
Big things if you slide by the little shit
Yeah I know it was my fault, life, the lie
Sorry I ever tried with the little bitch
But you know how it goes when you're out doing shows
Scratch that, bad excuses [?] what to ya
And I don't wanna ever give nothing but love to ya
And no other can ever be number one to ya

What's it to you? (To you)
If I'm running in and out of some other man's mind?
What's it to you? (There's no need to lie)
Guess you never found a lover more sweeter than I
What's it to you? (Are you just jealous?)
As I make another mistake, now you're not mine
My, oh my, my, oh my
My, oh my, my, oh my

My, oh my, my, oh my
My, oh my, my, oh my
My, oh my, my, oh my
My, oh my, my, oh my
