You come for me, but I'll escape
No longer waiting in your gaze
This could be something I could taste
A future now our love will escape
So come on now, an hour late
An hour later do I wait
You could be someone that I could relate
No longer feeling like I take

This could be something, nothing
And you would be something, nothing
No, we're nothing, you ain't do nothing
Oh, we're nothing

Suck, it's all or nothing now, or take it away
I wanted you to be more than just away
Oh, my lover, somebody else's cover
Til I waited, now I wait in flames

And this could be something, nothing
And this could be something, nothing
No way, this could be something, nothing
Oh wait, this could be something, nothing

Nothing, nothing, nothing
Nothing, nothing, nothing
Only you and you and you
Nothing, nothing, nothing
Only you and you and you
Nothing, nothing, nothing

No way, this could be something, nothing
Oh wait, this could be something, nothing
No way, this could be something, nothing
Oh wait, this could be something, nothing
