

Angry

Geowulf

It's not my problem
You got nothing
No one here
I'm sick of hearing your excuses
For your behaviour
I'm impatient
I give you everything
You'll take it
No hesitation
You just take it
I can't help myself from feeling angry
With everything you took from me
Thought you'd leave me something

'Cause love shouldn't look like this
I know it shouldn't look like this
I know it shouldn't look like this
I know
'Cause love shouldn't feel like this
I know it shouldn't feel like this
I know it shouldn't feel like this
I know

It's not my business
Who you undress
Where you've been
I can't stop my heart from turning black and blue
With everything I gave you
I'm leaving cause I have to

'Cause love shouldn't look like this
I know it shouldn't look like this
I know it shouldn't look like this
I know
'Cause love shouldn't feel like this
I know it shouldn't feel like this
I know it shouldn't feel like this
I know

'Cause love shouldn't look like this
I know it shouldn't look like this
I know it shouldn't look like this
I know

'Cause love shouldn't feel like this
I know it shouldn't feel like this
I know it shouldn't feel like this
I know

The light fades from your delusion
We've been waiting
Welcome home
