Falling

Geowulf

God knows to keep things hard and ironic
God knows to keep things fun
So I run around like an idiot
I've run around for love

Keeping high through empty nights again
Kill it now before it causes pain

I'm falling for you
I'm falling for you
But you'll never be mine
But you'll never be mine

Excuse the mess we made just to find it
Oh, the sticky side of love
Candlelight, the lies like something tragic
Help me now, I've had enough

Keeping high through empty nights again
Kill it now before it causes pain

I'm falling for you
I'm falling for you
But you'll never be mine
But you'll never be mine

Try, believe me, it's never easy
Trying to let go
From a nightmare, if only I dared
To try and just let go
Oh, baby, I'll let go
I'm falling for you
But you'll never be mine

I'm falling for you
I'm falling for you
But you'll never be mine
But you'll never be mine
