

Let all that you do be done in love
May all that you say be from your heart
It feels like I'm waiting for your love
It feels like I've waited long enough

I've been ready
I've been ready
It feels like I've been waiting for your love
It feels like I've been waiting for your love

When all of your fears catch up to you
What will you have left to hold onto?
It feels like I'm waiting for your love
It feels like I've waited long enough

I've been ready
I've been ready
It feels like I've been waiting for your love
It feels like I've been waiting for your love
It feels like I've been waiting for your love

Beyond reason
Are matters of the heart
They change like the seasons
But won't keep us apart

When all you believe in
Is all that you control
Love becomes treason
It feels like letting go

It feels like I've been waiting for your love
It feels like I've waited long enough

I've been ready
I've been ready
It feels like I've been waiting for your love
It feels like I've been waiting for your love
It feels like I've been waiting for your love
