

Same Ol'

Gerald Levert

It's the same ol', the same ol' thing we go through
You not trusting me, and me not trusting you
As far as I can throw you

So you think I've been (moving that around)
You heard I have a friend (on the other side of town)
And you been calling (trying to track me down)
Because your guilty conscience (is bothering you now)
You shoulda thought about (all of this before)
You cheated on me (all of this was yours)
Never once did I ever no no (try to dog you out)
But now I'm going all out, it's the same ol' thing

It's the same ol', the same ol' thing we go through
You not trusting me, and me not trusting you
As far as I can throw you
Cause I know you babe

How can you expect me (to believe you've changed)
All of my worst enemies (I wouldn't wish this pain)
You say you can't even trust me baby (well now we're even)
How many secrets are you keeping?

It's the same ol', the same ol' thing we go through
You not trusting me, and me not trusting you
As far as I can throw you
Cause I know you, I know you babe

It's the same ol', the same ol' thing we go through
You not trusting me, and me not trusting you
As far as I can throw you

Baby I tried (to do)
What was right (by you)
And it would hurt less if I didn't love you (but I do)
When did you become so conniving?
And don't you go and start that crying

It's the same ol', the same ol' thing we go through
You not trusting me, and me not trusting you
As far as I can throw you

Baby you know I know you, I know you baby, baby
You can fool some of the people some of the time
But you can't fool the one you love no no
(It's the same ol', the same ol' thing we go through)
(You not trusting me, and me not trusting you)
I don't trust you baby as far as I can throw you
And that ain't too far, that ain't too far baby, baby
(It's the same ol', the same ol' thing we go through)
Same ol' thing, same ol' thing, same ol' thing
(You not trusting me, and me not trusting you)
As far as I can throw you, far as I can see you, baby
