

Shootin' the Breeze

Gerald Levert

It seems we never have time alone
There's so much more to this love
Than we've known, let's get away

Just leave today, forget our troubles
Try to find some piece of mind
Sky is the limit this time, baby
So what do you say?

Shootin' the breeze, enjoyin' the weekend
Takin' it easy, just you and me
Shootin' the breeze, enjoyin' the weekend
Takin' it easy, just you and me

Can you imagine you and me alone?
Fulfillin' our wildest dreams
Baby, come on I'll be your slave
Your every wish is my command

Come go with me in ecstasy
Will be right at your hands, how can you refuse?
We'll watch the sunset and count all the stars
I'll be so happy to be where you are

Shootin' the breeze, enjoyin' the weekend
Takin' it easy, just you and me
Shootin' the breeze, enjoyin' the weekend
Takin' it easy, just you and me

Hey baby, come home
I just wanna be with you
I wanna be with you constantly
Continuously

Just you and me, baby

Sing a song, Gerald, sing a song

Shootin' the breeze, enjoyin' the weekend
Takin' it easy, just you and me
Shootin' the breeze, enjoyin' the weekend
Takin' it easy, just you and me

My baby, my, my baby, my baby will be singin' real
Walkin' hand in hand across the beach
Can't you see you and me together
Forever and ever and ever and ever, baby
