

Dasher

Gerard Way

Under atmospheric haze
Just some stratospheric strays we wait
And can we hold on our hearts
'Til the day brings the light?

Nice to meet you Marigold
I don't think you're looking old but "I don't think you can stay"
Said the sea to the night

When you go
When you go away
When you go
Can you come this way?
'Cause I feel safe in your arms
And she's got dashes in her stars
I hope you both come around
This way

She's a waitress he's uptown
City rain it gets her down enough to Waste all her dreams
On a paycheck and drown

But she needs to laugh sometimes
And she dreams you'll take her with you
Anywhere
'Cause these air traffic lanes need you now

When you go
When you go away
When you go
Can you come this way?
'Cause I feel safe in your arms
And she's got dashes in her stars
I hope you both come around
This way

"I really can't tell if I'm dreaming or breathing, could be actually leaving the day on the ground. But I'm easing into the dark and lifting off hand in yours hand in yours and the clouds never look like this down here, and the stars make a sound way up here. And I never miss the sun when I'm with you.
I never miss the sea. Like I'm never leaving home. I'm never all alone. I'm just waiting for the magic of the diamonds of the trees; here with you, here with us. Way up in the air and birds in the snow. The great, grey sky."

'Cause I feel safe in your arms
And she's got dashes in her stars
Let's run away fast and far
And no matter where you are
I hope you know
That we can show this world
It just can't bring us down
From these clouds
When we come this way
This way
Someday

Someday
This way
This way
