Grab a fronto leaf, roll these cookies out by the ocean
I just hit my walk, hit the stage now they start to notice
Now it's 125 for a line of this wocky potion
Said that they want static that's my cousin I'ma slide for em
If it's shameless money then you know that I would die for em
Lost too many homies, that make me feel like my heart torn
Gotta put on for em, I just came back from a world tour
All sorts of Gucci, this Prada it make me look good
We can shake it up, get to shootin' like a look book
Y'all be fake as fuck, just gon' do it for the YouTube
You can make the sauce, I'm the one who wrote the cookbook

Cocaine colored whips, and big ass backwood full of propane
Slidin' through the jungle, steppin' on opps doin' em the worse way
Hundred till I fall, niggas can't kick it, move along
Pocket full of Benji's got me feelin' like the mayor now
Money, power, respect, these niggas gon' have to watch me ball now
Ridin' with that 100 years, can't go out like no clown dog
Pesos more pounds dawg, lit bitch lit sick jaw dog
Slidin' bout some bullshit y'all niggas can't compare to Bag moves, new whips, flipped bitch, it's bad news
Cash still rules everything around me, what that bag do?
Crazy what that bag make a bitch do
