

I Count The Tears

Gerry and the Pacemakers

Na, na, na, na, na, na late at nite
Na, na, na, na, na, na late at nite

I have counted everyday
Since you've been away
It seemed like a thousand years
And at na, na, na, na, na, na, late at night
Na, na, na, na, na, na late at night
I'll sit
And count the tears

I have counted all your lies
All your alibis
I'm a guy believes just what he hears
And at na, na, na, na, na, na, late at night
Na, na, na, na, na, na, late at night
I'll sit
And count the tears

She's gone and found somebody new
He may be happy now but soon
He'll be counting everyday
That she's been away
It'll seem
Like a thousand years

And at na, na, na, na, na, na, late at night
Na, na, na, na, na, na, late at night
He'll sit
And count his tears
He'll sit
And count his tears

He'll sit
And count his tears
He'll sit
And count his tears
