

So Bad

Gesaffelstein

Please don't be (So bad)
I still feel (You there)
Tears they fell (So many)
(How could I be so wrong?)
(How could I be so strong?)
Nothing else (Compares)
(How could I be so wrong?)
(How could I be so strong?)

I came to find death, I stayed for life
I came here foolish, I left here wise
I'm waiting for something I can't deny
A truth, a sermon, a sacrifice

I wanna wake up and all is love
Forget the trouble I'm made of
The waves are pounding across the shore
These dreams of mine go on and on

(How could I be so wrong?)
(How could I be so wrong?)

I came to find death, I stayed for life
I came here foolish, I left here wise
I'm waiting for something I can't deny
A truth, a sermon, a sacrifice

I wanna wake up and all is love
Forget the trouble I'm made of
The waves are pounding across the shore
These dreams of mine go on and on
