

This Could Be All

Get Cape. Wear Cape. Fly

And if all the words that I could never say, it's inevitable that they're never going to go away.
And all of the plans, that we could've made,
it's inevitable that they'll never see the light of day

Because this could be all
This could be all

Don't you love it when the sun breaks through the clouds on the dark days and you just sit there smiling hoping that it won't go away.
Do you remember when the rains came down in summer on that hot day and you just sat there laughing hoping that it won't go away.

Because this could be all
This could be all

Chorus repeat x 2

Because this could be all
This could be all
