

Misfortunate (Let's Talk)

Get Scared

So let's talk
Sit down darling let's talk
Those green eyes could only get you so far
And I'm wrong
You know darling I'm wrong
My mind is weak and now it's wandered off

Hello Miss Unfortunate it seems you've lost it all
You've got the saddest eyes the world has ever known
Darling wipe those tears away
And let the liquor course through those veins

Ssshhh...
You stumble to the bed
Your eyes are soaking wet
You better wipe the makeup from the lovely dress
Dream soft, no nightmares
You tiptoed round everyone who cares

So let's talk
Come on darling, let's talk
Those green eyes could only get you so far
Yeah, yeah

Hello Mister Fortunate it seems you've got it all
You've got the best disguise the world has ever known
Drink up your nightmares
And let the liquor drown out your shame

So let's talk
Come on darling let's talk
Those green eyes could only get you so far
And I'm wrong
I know darling I'm wrong
My mind is weak and now it's wandered off
Yeah, yeah

Give up on love I'm trust-less
Give up on trust I'm loveless
And now it's time to let you go

Give up on love I'm trust-less
Give up on trust I'm loveless
And now it's time to let you go, yeah

So let's talk
Come on darling let's talk
Those green eyes could only get you so far
And I'm wrong
You know darling I'm wrong
My mind is weak and now it's wandered off
