

Time Keeps Running

Get Scared

What the fuck? You've all gone nuts
Like children armed with matches and loaded guns
My God, was I oblivious?
We're mad as fucking hatters 'cause nothing ever mattered to us
The kerosene in me
Laced with gasoline
Ignite a fire they'd see
For miles away from the scene
Time keeps running, gone in moments
Bodies burning, blind to omens
Hell stays hungry
For a world so weak
Hate was the only thing that got in my way
Some things never change
No confidence for coming clean, will I amount to anything?
Anxieties that I've never faced this way
The kerosene in me
Laced with gasoline
Ignite a fire they'd see
For miles away from the scene
Time keeps running, gone in moments
Bodies burning, blind to omens
Hell stays hungry
For a world so weak
Oh, so it goes
Broken and so alone
Leave me hysterical
Sorrow consumes us all
They only want you to bleed
Time keeps running, gone in moments
Bodies burning, blind to omens
And hell stays hungry, they sharpen their teeth
For a world so weak
Bleed me like a leech
