

I'm a Goner

Get Set Go

Catastrophe waits for me in the form of the girl
With long hair and narrow hips and eyes as bright as pearls.

I know I'm a goner

I know I'm as good as walking dead.

I know I'm a goner

I should have known as soon as she said,

'Oh, I like your music and the way it fks

With my head.'

Why oh why do I play with fire when I know that I'll get burned?

All the scars that I've acquired, you'd think that I'd have learned.

I know I'm a goner

I know I'm good as burning ash.

I know I'm a goner

I should have known as soon as she asked,

'Why do all your songs sound happy

But seem so sad?'

Would you like to go home with me? (3x)

Would you like to go home- I'm so alone.

Catastrophe sleeps beside me in the form of a girl.

Her naked flesh pressed against me, outside, sleeping world.

I know I'm a goner

I know I'm as good as dead again.

I know I'm a goner

I should have known it happened the moment when,

She came to me and said,

'Hello, I am a fan.'
