

Deathbound

Get The Shot

Knock you out
Smash you down
Deathbound
Knock you out
Smash you down
Deathbound
No peace to be found until you rot forever
Knock you out
Smash you down
Deathbound
No peace to be found until you rot forever

Suffer the loss, let the purge begin
Behold, the blade's dropping down on your scum race
Ain't nothing good in you to save pricks
You're living waste, a pathetic disgrace
You never loved, never cared, never lived
Drowned in the shame of the coward you've been Running for cover with no chance to win
Now comes the knife to purify your gutless breed
No apologies for my enemies

No one cares about you
May you choke on your misery
No hope's waiting for you
Embrace defeat
No one cares about you
May you choke on your misery
No hope's waiting for you
Embrace defeat
See you all when I'm dead

Cleanse the living from your worthless being
Follow your leader, pull the trigger and faint
I am the venom, your dying vision
Leading your way down the path to destruction

Bite the bullet
Death's a promise for the enemy
Bite the bullet
Every lie carries a price to pay

Check, check, welcome to the West Coast
LHHC is back again

I am no son of God, I never was
Born from the shadows left to walk alone
Love don't live here, only hate remains
Pain is a promise, ain't no other way
Judgment day's coming

Face the night
Hang in sorrow fucking parasites
There's no redemption in sight
Down at the bottom
Watch you drown in your suffering
Welcome to Quebec City you son of a bitch

Alright, this one's for Quebec
[?] that shit back
Knock you out
Smash you down
Deathbound
Night night, sucka

Knock you out
Smash you down
Deathbound
No peace to be found until you rot forever
Knock you out
Smash you down
Deathbound
No peace to be found until you rot forever

They say fear must change camp
And it's coming your way you motherfucker

You picked the wrong wolf to fuck with
You picked the wrong wolf to fuck with
You picked the wrong wolf to fuck with
You picked the wrong wolf to fuck with

Nowhere to run you spineless scum
Judgement day's coming

Sleep tight, motherfucker
You picked the wrong wolf to fuck with
